MONDAY, AUGUST 2, 1869.

From the San Francisco Morning Call.

A CHINESE THEATRE IN SAN FRANCISCO.

A few weeks ago the proprietor of the Chinese Theatre on Jackson street returned from China, bringing with him a company of ninety performers that had been performing for many years at Canton, and who had a wide reputation for talent as scrobats, vaulters, vocalists and general performers. Their wardrobe is of a most gorgeous style, and cost, in China, where everything is so cheap, a "power" of money. Their arrival, as a matter of course, caused considerable excitement among the Chinese hoi toi, because in the troupe were several ladies whose feet were no larger than a man's little finger. The theatre on Jackson street, which is as large as the Metropolitan, was crowded to excess on the opening night, and each evening since. The fame of the company has gradually extended beyond Chinese circles, and every evening now sees quite a number of Americans in the audience. Last night we dropped in for a few moments, and were astonished at the scene before us. Near the door sat a silent old fellow rolling up bettle nuts and quicklime, and selling "chaw" to the auditors as they came in. The females were the greatest patrons of this luxury, and scarcely one failed to invest five cents in a chaw. A short distance off were several well-known politicians, who were evidently under the convoy of a prominent Chinese compradore. The stage was filled with actors, musicians and spectators; for if the actors have enough room to stand and move about they are content. The music (?)—shade of Mendelssohn!—was considered grand by the Chinese, but to our ears it was nothing but a terrific din, caused by the beating of gongs, the clashing of cymbals, the squeaking of fiddles, the beating of drums, and the tooting of asthmatic trumpets. It gave us a headache that we did not recover from for hours. Our guide informed us that the play being represented was an epoch in Chinese history covering a period of about sixty years, and that it generally required from fourteen to twenty hours to represent it, but under pressure it could be ground out in nine hours. When we arrived it had arrived at that pitch where a rebellion had broken out, and the adherents of each party were preparing to decide matters by the gage of battle. Troops were being marshalled and reviewed, inspected, and harangued to the highest pitch of courage.—The cavalry were represented by fellows carrying switches, and the taking of the switch from the hand of the rider, was, by a violent presumption, considered to be dismounting. One body of cavalry were painted to look as near like devils as possible, and without hesitation we will accept them as such. Another lot were gallant zouzous, and were the conventional big trousers of the Zouaves. These latter appeared to belong to the attacking party, and were "eager for the fray;" for they dared their antagonists to come out and have a "square thing" of it. After a great deal of preliminary fussing, the battle began, and then we were treated with a display of acrobatic feats, such as are never seen outside of a Chinese theatre. One fellow, who had a penchant for getting on a table to crow over his victory, was continually getting knocked "head over heels" by one of the rebels, who would come upon the stage, turning somersaults, until he would reach a certain distance from the table, when he would straighten out, while turning, and plant his feet in the breast of his adversary with tremendous force. Some of the performers had a great fondness for climbing upon three tables, placed one on top of the other, and turning a flip flap, light on their backs on another table, ten or twelve feet away. A double sword and spear combat displayed considerable skill, and was fought with real earnest, for several of the combatants received severe wounds from which the blood poured in streams. This delighted the audience, and their applause nerved the actors to greater courage and to more valorous deeds. While some of their feats of agility are wonderfully well executed, they have not the grace and finish that is to be seen in our gymnasts; in fact, they appear to do everything by main strength and awkwardness.

GRANT'S OFFICIAL CRIMINALS AND LIARS.

From the New York Day Book.

During the Lincoln war, M. Y. Johnson, an estimable lawyer of Galena, was sentenced and thrust into prison for "disloyalty," at the instance of E. B. Washburne and J. R. Jones. At the close of the war Mr. Johnson brought a suit against these two scoundrels for false imprisonment.—Washburne and his fellow culprit put in a plea of justification, but finding that they were sure to be mulcted in heavy damages, threw themselves upon the mercy of Mr. Johnson and signed a paper confessing their guilt, from which the following is an extract:

"That the said pleas, heretofore signed by them in said case, and the matters and things therein set forth against said plaintiff, are untrue in substance and in fact.—And the said defendants further confess the wrongful trespass and imprisonment set forth in said declaration, and that the said defendants are guilty in manner and form as there in stated and set forth, and said plaintiff has sustained great damage thereby, as is alleged in said declaration, and said defendan s further confess that the said seizure and imprisonment was wrongful, unjustifiable, and without cause, and that said plaintiff was innocent of the violation of any law, or of doing any act inimical to the government of the United States, and that said plaintiff did no act and uttered no expression, or exercised any influence to the knowledge of said defendants, that was not in support of the government of the United States, its constitution, and its laws."

One of the scoundrels who signed himself a liar and calumniating knave is the fellow who now represents this government at Paris. If Washburne was not a wretch utterly destitute of shame, he would never dare lift up his head in the presence of respectable gentlemen again. To be sure, while at home, he was not generally given to the society of gentlemen, a fact which is before this time patent to the Court of France. Grant has sent a murderer to Spain; a confessed liar to France, and several of his other foreign appointments have smelt the air of the criminal's cell.

"MILITARY JUSTICE."

The phonographer who reported the Yerger trial, at Jackson, Mississippi, declares his belief to be that "if the trial had been before any jury in the country, it would have acquitted Yerger; but as it is, he believes the military commission found him guilty, and sentenced him to death."

It can hardly be that the phonographer intends to hold up the system of military jurisprudence as superior to that of the common law, which is the inestimable birthright of Americans. That, however, is what the language implies, unless it be construed to condemn the finding of the military tribunal.

Any jury in the country—a jury of Northern men or of Southern men—would have acquitted Yerger upon the testimony adduced to prove his insanity. If that be so, then to defend, excuse, or apologise for the act of the military tribunal in finding him guilty is to say that the military court is wiser in the administration of justice than the courts of the civic law.

If that be so, what further arguments should Americans need to persuade them to reject the civic law and adopt imperialism? That would be the most thorough method of doing away with the system of trial by jury, and of inaugurating in its stead the military system.

If, however, the American people prefer to preserve the jury system, it will be most prudent to defend that system against every attempt to defeat its operation, even in a single instance. If any jury in the country would have acquitted Yerger upon the testimony before the military court, then Yerger ought to have been acquitted, and the military tribunal, in convicting him, committed as grave a crime against the civic law as that which the accused committed.

Doubtless the great body of Americans have faith in the system of trial by jury.—They prefer it before any other sytem that man's ingenuity has ever devised. They believe that it serves the end of justice and right better than any other. They would not exchange it for any imperial or military code in the world. Holding it in such high estimation, are there any Americans so thoughtless as to approve of the finding of a military tribunal, when any jury in the country would have found the opposite?—Chicago Times.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

MONDAY, AUGUST 2, 1869.

Conservative and Democratic Nominee.

FOR SENATOR,

FOR THE SIXTEENTH DISTRICT,

JOSHUA PERRY,

OF FRANKLIN.

SENATORIAL ELECTION.

On Thursday next, 5th inst., Wake and Franklin counties will vote for a Senator to fill the vacancy in the District composed of those two counties. Two candidates are before the people, Joshua Perry, Esq., and Gen. P. B. Hawkins. Between these the voters must make choice. Gen. Hawkins is put forward by the Radical League party of the District; Mr. Perry by the Conservatives. Gen. Hawkins is pledged to the radical, extravagant policy of the Legislature, as manifested in all its appropriations and reckless expenditures of the last sessions; Mr. Perry is pledged to a liberal policy of legislation, economical administration of the State government and to low taxes. Gen. Hawkins represents the proscriptive policy of the Radical party, announced by Gov. Holden, in the Standard, prior to, and in his inaugural address on the day of his induction into the office of Governor, while Mr. Perry stands squarely on the Conservative platform, solemnly laid down by the Convention which nominated him, of "Universal Suffrage and General Amnesty."

Mr. Perry is a plain, honest farmer, who has not sought office, and never tried to be "all things to all men" that he might get a grab at the public crib; while on the other hand, Gen. Hawkins did, by his own confession at Louisburg, show two faces by trying to "run two ways" during the election for the adoption of the Constitution and the election of officers under it; for he is known to have made himself a voluntary delegate to DEMOCRATIC and CONSERVATIVE meetings to nominate candidates and take measures for the defeat of the imperfect and Radical Constitution, and was, as he declared at Louisburg, secretly contributing funds (perhaps those very unpaid Jack Tees) to the Leagues to assist them in carrying the odious Constitution and elect their Radical candidates.

Now, can anybody, white or black, trust such a man any further than his own selfish interests will bind him? We think the man who will cheat a darkey out of "Jack tees" shows a considerable degree of cool impudence to ask that darkey or any other to vote for him.

We think the duty and necessity of going to the polls and voting is sufficiently plain to every one; and if we desire the District represented by a plain, sensible, honest man, let us vote for Joshua Perry; while to those who are in favor of filling the place with a man who seems suddenly to have been inspired with a mission to serve a party as soon as the party proposes to pay; who has shown, heretofore, a leg on each side of the fence, and who refused to pay colored men their "Jack tees," we say, you could not be better suited than by taking Gen. Pat. Hawkins.

Colored Folks, remember, that General Pitt Hawkins bought slaves and paid for them in gold, after the surrender.

JOSEPH M. GRAHAM.

We had a pleasant visit, and long Sunday chat with our old friend and college chum, whose name heads this paragraph, on the 1st inst. He looks quite well and young, for a grandfather, and seems more hopeful for the future of the country than most Southern men. The time was too short for either of us to say all we wished of days "lang syne," and we hope we may again meet before he shall leave the State; but whether we do or not, may he long live to enjoy the blessings of reconstruction, "universal suffrage and general amnesty."

Gen. Phil. Hawkins educational is a Democratic delegate, to a Democratic meeting in Franklin to help defeat the present Constitution.

DOCTORS DISAGREE.—The North Carolinian, extreme Rad, in allusion to the decision of the Supreme Court, on the University Railroad question, says, "in this connection we would say that, while we are an advocate of railroads and public improvements, we are not in favor of any project that will over burthen the people with taxation. This decision of the Supreme Court will relieve us from what threatened to be a heavy load to carry at this time. We shall have more to say on the subject hereafter."

The Legislature was not quite so considerate, in regard to "overburthening the people with taxation," as the passage of this and other Railroad bills will show. They seemed perfectly indifferent as to the "heavy load" of taxation they imposed upon the State, so that State bonds could get within the handling of "the Ring." We are glad to see one Radical paper becoming ashamed of, and repudiating, the extravagance of its party.

THE RAILROAD DIFFICULTY.

We were aware sometime ago, that it was in contemplation, by the Radical leaders about Raleigh, for some cause, to kick Col. C. L. Harris, Superintendent of Public Works, overboard. Whether Col. Harris has dared to have an opinion of his own, and refused, from principle, to blindly obey the behests of the clique contrary to his convictions of right; or whether he has some end of his own to accomplish, which conflicts with the arrangements of the Governor and his set, is, of course, a matter of which we can know nothing, and about which we can possibly have no very great concern. We are charitable enough to hope, and, till convinced otherwise, will admit, that Col. Harris is prompted in his course by a desire to carry out in their spirit the provisions of the Constitution and acts of the Legislature, by which the office of Superintendent of Public Works was created. We cannot see what other end, under the circumstances, he could have in view, for it is very certain that he could have nothing else to look for in the course he has pursued, than to bring down upon himself the ire and wrath of the Governor, and all those, who for spoils sake, cling to the skirts of that functionary.—And that there remains to him "a fearful looking for of the wrath to come" is fully shadowed forth in the Standard of this morning.

It is evident that it has not been the purpose of the Governor and those who are with him in this move against the Superintendent of Public Works, to reconcile the matter, for, if it had, it could easily have been done, by making up a case in a friendly manner before the Supreme Court, which was in session in this city when the contention first arose in regard to appointment of proxies and Directors for the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad. Why would not the Governor adopt such a course? It would appear to any reasonable man that this was the plainest, easiest and best manner of settling the dispute, if there was no ulterior object in view. But, we believe, and the whole facts in the case seem to justify the belief, that there was some object to be attained besides a legal settlement of the contested prerogative between the Governor and the Superintendent. What that object is, is only, at present, partially apparent, but it involved the necessity of crushing the Superintendent, and that part of the programme is now being carried out.

We have no sympathy with the Superintendent in this contest, but, we must say, looking to his action in the appointment of Directors in the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Railroad meeting in Wilmington, last week, that he has a better appreciation of what is due to the people of Wilmington, and the stockholders on the lower portion of that great work, than was manifested by the Governor in the appointments announced by his Agent in the stockholders' meeting.

Whether the Superintendent and his friends shall suffer themselves to be lashed into traces again, remains to be seen, if, indeed, in the meantime His Excellency does not summarily dispose of the Superintendent and the contest, at once, by declaring the office vacant, as is pretty plainly threatened in the Standard of this morning. We shall see what we shall see.

Don't forget, Gen. Phil. Hawkins never declared himself a Republican until he thought he could get an office by it.

ONE WORD MORE TO THE GOVERNOR

The personal and political relations which Friday Jones bears to your Excellency, make it proper that we should acquaint your Excellency with his rude and unbecoming behavior. Friday, though a colored man, holds a public station at the will of your Excellency. In fact, he is of your political family, and his deportment must reflect credit or shame upon your administration. It is thought by some that Friday models his speech after your Excellency and the imitation is as marvelous and correct as that of Jim Harris in the carry and flourish of his cane.

Xenophon tells of certain Persian gentlemen, who were called "opthalmoi"—or eyes of the King. They were about the person and capital of the King, as Friday is about your Excellency's person and capital. They looked out and stood ready to protect the person or capital of the King, as does Friday to-day. So, after the manner of Xenophon, we may call Friday Jones, (colored) keeper of the capitol "opthalmoi," or "eyes of the Governor." Seeing the promptness of men to imitate, your Excellency should be very choice in your language and circumspect in your deportment.

Your "mas Friday," without any provocation calls us a liar. He got the language from your Excellency. You remember it is your identical language, applied to Dr. Hawkins and Mr. Mordecai without provocation. Friday's language ill becomes the mouth of a gentleman, whether he be white or black; whether he keeps the capitol or a horse stable.

Sure it is, Simon Hayes, who keeps a decent Livery Stable and fine horses, would give employment to no man who would use such language in his stable.

You are also imitated in your swearing. Since you swore that horrid oath in the presence of the Chief Justice; one of the Court has been heard to imitate you and say he "was d——n, sorry Settle had called the attention of the Court to the "solemn protest." Thus you see the necessity of a Governor's being guarded in his speech.—Equally so, should he be in his conduct in relieving prisoners, as you did the Auditor from the sentence of the Court, for, men in Pittsboro have followed your example and relieved Davis from the sentence of the Court and the law.

Vote for Perry, the low tax candidate against Gen. Phil. Hawkins, the high tax candidate.

We give the following extract from a letter addressed to the Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel, from Macon, Ga:

"It is well known here that, when the case was first closed, and the Commissioner took time to consider the evidence that he had made up his mind that the evidence required that Turner should be committed for trial. Indeed, a written decision to that effect was drawn up by the Commissioner to be delivered upon the re-opening of the Court.

In the meantime Bullock and the Radical wireworkers at Washington were actively engaged in pressing the administration to ease up the prosecution for the sake of the party. Constant communications were being sent back and forth from Atlanta and Macon to Washington, and the several postponements were made with a view to instructions from the Postoffice Department at Washington. Letters and telegrams were sent by Sumner and other leading Radicals, insisting upon Turner's release. Sumner wrote a long letter to Swayze, urging him to hold up and let Turner off, and, finally, the whole of Grant's administration were thrown in the scale for Turner, and the prosecution, as might have been expected, kicked the beam—went up—collapsed.

While this correspondence was going on skillful and unscrupulous agents were set to work on the mulatto woman, Harris, and large promises were made to her in order to induce a retraction of her first and truthful statement, which, unequivocally, implicated Turner as the thief and forger of the stolen notes. How well they succeeded was shown in the very remarkable tale the woman told when under examination during the trial.

This whole trial was a miserable farce from beginning to end. But the evidence was so strong against Turner that he would undoubtedly have been committed but for Atlanta and Washington influences. A letter has been discovered written by Turner to a negro preacher at Marietta—a Presiding Elder, I believe—which, for low and filthy obscenity and utterly depraved sentiments, exceeds anything I have ever seen in the English language. This letter was written in reply to one asking Turner to procure for the writer a free pass on the State Road. The original letter, I learn, has been sent to Washington, and it is thought when Creswell peruses its contents that even his stomach—known to be very strong—will revolt at its contents, and that his dear friend Turner will be removed from office.

There is a secret history about the Turner and Swayze affair, and the causes which led to the delay in the investigation against Turner, which I have discovered and will fully develop to you in a few days.

Remember! that a colored man in Louisburg charged Gen. Hawkins with refusing to pay him his "Jack's fees" after value received.

For the Sentinel.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., July 26, 1869.

Mr. Editor:—My last letter to you was from Morristown, and in it I referred to the great advantages to North Carolina of the Railroad in course of construction to Paint Rock via Asheville. You had a serious misprint in that letter, putting Broome-ile for Knoxville; but probably not many of your readers noticed it. Our people are lamentably ignorant of the resources of East Tennessee, and of their relations to our interests, and especially to the prosperity of our railroads and of our Atlantic cities. Chattanooga is the south-western terminus of the railroad which bisects East Tennessee; and here is, also, the terminus of the Nashville and Chattanooga road, and of the Chattanooga and Atlanta. Here, in other words, the South and West come together; and as you have seen by the papers, the road from Cincinnati to the Southern ports has been located up this point. Twenty miles North-East from here is Cleaveland, at which the East Tennessee and Georgia Road forks—one branch coming here, and one going to Dalton, Georgia. Cleaveland is the point to which the products of the celebrated Ducktown Copper Mines are hauled. The mines are 40 miles from the railroad, and, as you know, very near the North Carolina line. There will be a railroad before long from Cleaveland to Ducktown; and now suppose the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Road were carried to the Copper mines, as originally intended? If you and your readers will take a map and keep in view the connections above referred to, you will find that a direct road from Wilmington to Ducktown would be one of the most important avenues of trade and travel in the United States; it would be hailed as a great boon by an immense and most fruitful region west of the Blue Ridge, and reaching West to Cincinnati and Louisville, or South to Memphis, and would carry to Wilmington an amount of produce of which even the most sanguine merchants have hardly dreamed. This (Chattanooga) will be the point to which trade will be sent to meet conveyances to the Atlantic. Our coast, if connected by direct lines, would be nearer, and our ports have, in some important respects, advantages over those further South.

I do not know the present status of our two great Western roads, that is, I have not kept up with the changes in their charters and locations; but I think it safe to assert that they will be immensely important whenever they intersect with the railroads of East Tennessee.

It is clear, however, that direct lines from Paint Rock, or from here to the Atlantic are the true routes; and the nearest route from here is via Clearsland and Ducktown, our people having only to build to the last named point.

This town, in itself, is of no little importance; it is here that the Tennessee river breaks through the Cumberland mountains; and here that the coast region and the Mississippi valley meet; and of course this was a key point during the late war; and in view of this were fought the great battles of Chickamauga and Missionary Ridge. The struggle of arms is nearly forgotten; and here now is the focus of a contest of a far different kind: To this point the wise and enterprising States of the South, are looking with deep interest, and none have a greater stake in the issue of the peaceful struggle entering here; and none more claims to success, if her people and government are far-sighted and true to themselves, than our own beloved

NORTH CAROLINA.

Remember that Gen. Phil Hawkins never went round shaking hands with colored men until he thought he could get office by it.

☞ A LABOR OF HERCULES.—The labor of love undertaken by Greeley to purify the Republican party in our State Legislature. He would not only have specie payments—specie or no specie—right off, but he would also have the millennium. Greeley may be a model statesman, but he asks too much. —N. Y. Herald.

The corruptness and rottenness of the Republican party in the New York Legislature is no worse than that which characterizes the entire party over the whole country.

STATE NEWS.

A NEW HOTEL.—We understand that a movement is on foot to organize a joint Stock Company for the purpose of building a new hotel at Morehead City. The names of the gentlemen connected with the enterprise, are a sufficient guarantee of its success.—Newbern Commercial.

AN AGED LADY.—THE RELICT OF A REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIER.—Mrs. Margaret Wells, an old lady now past 88 years, residing in the neighborhood of Rocky Point depot, in this county, yesterday made her appearance at the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court for the purpose of making affidavits necessary to obtain a pension from the government. She is the relict of an old Revolutionary soldier, and since his death continued to draw the pension allowed him by the government up to 1859 when her papers were lost. It is gratifying to know that this old lady can have this pension renewed and will receive the amount which has accumulated since 1859.—Wil. Journal.

SOME DIFFERENCE.—We learn that the Judges of the Supreme Court made an estimate that their decision in the late railroad cases would, reduce the taxes to be paid, 27 cents from the gross amount. But the Public Treasurer, in his Circular issued to the Sheriffs, states the deduction at only 8½ cents. This is a wide difference and might be well enough to inquire into.

We learn that some of our largest tax payers will refuse to pay the Sheriff the taxes claimed, and will take the matter before the Courts.

We likewise learn that in some of the adjoining counties, the County Commissioners have assessed the poll tax at more than $2 on the poll, for the reason that no regard is paid by the officers of the State Government in apportioning the taxes, to that provision of the Constitution which regulates the property tax of three hundred dollars valuation to correspond with $2 on the poll. This is doing exactly what should be done.—Statesville American.

CATAWBA TO THE FRONT.—At a public Township Meeting in Catawba County, last week, Wm. Long, Esq., acting as Chairman, and G. C. McNeill, Esq., Secretary, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted as expressive of the feelings and sentiments of the meeting:

"We, the citizens of Hamilton Township, Catawba Co., N. C., in convention assembled, amazed at the unparalleled corruption and destructive extravagance of our State Government, beholding with shame and indignation the unspoken submission of our people to so many grievous wrongs, and maintaining, perhaps, at our peril, that we still have the heaven-born right of free expression, resolve,

1st. That we are opposed to the unconstitutional appropriations of the public money, which falls upon us with crushing power in the form of excessive and merciless taxation, adding other weights to an already overburdened yeomanry, who are laboring hard to make money but to be wrenched from them to pamper heartless office holders and legislators.

2nd. Uninfluenced by partizan rancor, solicitous for the domestic tranquility, the establishment of justice and the promotion of the general welfare, we demand, as of right we have to do, a thorough retrenchment of our expenditures, a reformation of the public morals, and on the broad platform of economy and justice, equal political rights to all, white and black, we invite all to unite with us in an appeal to the ballot, co-operating hereafter in the election to office of men of sobriety, intelligence and integrity.

A RATHER STRANGE DISCOVERY.—A gentleman who was in Warrenton on Thursday, gives us an account of a discovery in that place, on Wednesday, rather startling, and one which leads to any number of conjectures. The floor of the building occupied by one J. R. Johnson as a shoe shop on the upper end of Main Street, fell in from age, discovering to the wondering eyes of those who were engaged in clearing away the fallen floor the evidences of several persons having been at some time in the past stored away beneath the building—nine thigh bones, besides other portions of skeletons, being found under the floor. This of course could not be accounted for—the house is ancient, perhaps has been there a century, has been used for various purposes in the course of its existence, having been a courthouse, a jail and the abode of a man of medicine. There is no way of solving this mystery, and the fate of those who had been thus consigned to this hiding place must remain unknown.—Roanoke News.

From the New York Day Book.

"THE GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC."

Reader, if a member of this 'Grand Army of the Republic" enters your door, kick him out, and treat him, be he officer or private, as a sneaking, prying, double-faced, treacherous false-hearted, white livered scoundrel. We mean to be understood in this matter. A more detestable set of knaves never herded together for political and social villainy, than this so called Grand Army of the Republic. They are political pimps, political panel thieves, and are worthy to play spy and informer to "our friendly ally, the despot of Russia." It was the Grand Army of the Republic that ordered the removal from a place he had long filled with faithful services to the government, the man who married the daughter of that murdered lady, Mrs. Surratt. And the other day, one Martin Renchase, a clerk in the Fifth Auditor's office, at Washington, was removed by the order of one of this band of political thugs, because his wife dared to rent a room they thought they could spare from their very limited suite of apartments, to an ex-Confederate officer. These thugs stabbed Renchase in the back, and under cover of darkness, for the scoundrels never work like manly highwaymen, in open daylight. Renchase was removed, and did not know where the blow came from which lost him his place, till a week after he was dismissed. A negro was installed in this place made vacant in the Fifth Auditor's department. The Grand Army of the Republic are simply a secret organization of thugs and informers, who work under cover of obscurity for the damnable party now cursing the country. If these things go on, free white men of the United States, we shall all wake up one of these days and find every varlet and knave who compose the rank and file of this Grand Army of the Republic, standing over us with fixed bayonets, and liberty a corpse by the roadside, mangled and torn as by jackalls. U. S. Grant, the ostensible President of the United States, is complacently viewing the growing strength of the Grand Army of the Republic; and when the time comes, that organization will show its claws. Have the Democracy of the United States sold their political birthrights to the Mongrels now in power? If they have not, it is high time to arouse and prepare for a conflict which must be victory or death. The year 1872 is to be the most eventful which this country has ever passed through, or ever will. This Republic either emerges from the perils that now surround it, or it sinks beyond extrication into one of the darkest despotisms which ever disgraced the earth. The Democracy can save it. They MUST; they WILL.

Died.

In this City on Monday morning, July 2nd, at the residence of W. G. Parker, Mr. Lee Whitaker, aged 43 years. It will be gratifying to his friends and relations at a distance, to learn that for two or three weeks prior to his death, while his bodily infirmities increased, the health of his mental faculties was fully restored.

In this City of Typhoid Fever August 1st, 1869, Mrs. Frances Hoge, wife of B. J. Hoge, late of this city.

The remains of the deceased will be conveyed to Richmond Va., on this evening's, (Monday's) train, at half past 6 o'clock.

Obituary.

The recent death of JAMES A MOORE, of this City, in the very prime of useful life, has justly occasioned general and profound regret. The writer feels it due to that universal sentiment and to the memory of our departed fellow citizen to give public voice, as it were, to the sense entertained by the community of their loss, and public expression to that regard in which the deceased was held, while living, and which has followed him to a premature grave.

When an old man has filled the measure of his years, and, like an Autumn fruit, mellowed long, lets go his hold on life, we mourn, but still we recognize the completed circle and a consummated work. It is when the young, the active and the genial are stricken down, in the very highway of existence and amid ardent hopes and valuable labors, that our regrets are unaccompanied by such reflections and consolations.

Until within a short time past, there was every prospect before our departed friend of many years of that usefulness which had marked all his former life, and of that interchange of the kindly offices of family and friendship which had characterized all his former intercourse. The comparative suddenness of the close, which has ceased these fond anticipations, make it the harder to be borne and the more difficult of realization.

Mr. Moore had filled several offices of public and private trust with entire efficiency and probity. He was possessed of a vigorous mind, with great sprightliness of expression and manner, rendering casual or familiar association with him at all times pleasant and agreeable. True as the polar star to friends, he had contracted, perhaps, more than the usual number of intimacies which are found in hurrying along the avenues of life.

High-toned and honorable, he scorned meanness in all its forms and phases. When we add to all this, that he was fearless in the advocacy of what he believed to be right, sympathizing and gentle in the tenderer and more sacred relations of life, it is not surprising that he stood in such good repute and challenged so high esteem.

Lightly lie the turf above him, fragrant be his memory! A good citizen, a gallant gentleman sleeps where he rests, after "life's fitful dream."

From the Norfolk Daily Journal July 13, 1869

NEW BUT RELIABLE.—A new remedy for purifying the blood and restoring the liver and kidneys to healthy action, and invigorating the nervous system, has recently been prepared and is now offered for sale to the public by Dr. J. J. LAWRENCE, of th a city, under the name of KOSKOO.

The gentleman by whom this medicine is prepared is not a quack, but a gentleman of well-known integrity in Norfolk, a man of scientific attainments, and a succes ful practitioner of medicine, and who has gained a national reputation as di coverer of the celebrated remedy—Rosadalis.

This new medicine, Koskoo, bids fair to outstrip in popularity the former preparations of Dr. Lawrence, and become not only a State but a National medicine.

On Saturday last, and for many days past, the sale in the Norfolk office has amounted to hundreds of bottles, and the demand is still for Koskoo, the greatest remedy of modern times.

We wish Dr. Lawrence abundant success in the sale of his health restoring medicines, and feel that in so doing we direct the attention of the public to a gentleman whose merits deserve a liberal and generous patronage.

WIRE RAILWAYS—A NEW INVENTION.—"A railway without cuttings, embankments, tunnels, viaducts, or bridges, no matter how hilly the country to be traversed"—such is the definition given by Herapath's Journal of an invention now in use in Leicestershire, England, in Granham street, E. C. The wire tramway provides a simple and cheap satisfactor for a line of rails, and is of great service where, from the scarcity or intermittent character of the traffic, or the engineering difficulties of the ground to be got over, it is either not expedient or impossible to go through the expensive process of forming a local railway. For the wire spans over and evad s obsacles in place of burrowing under; or levelling them, and will perform its task as easily along a rugged tract of country as on the smoothest road.

The experiment is being now practiced with complete success between some Leicestershire stone quarries and a railway station three miles distant.

Already wire tramways on the Leicestershire model are in course of erection in France, Italy and Spain."

We cordially join with the Illinois State Journal in the following petition:

We wish the journalists of the West would unite in a humble memorial to the Associated Press, respectfully showing:

1. We don't care who her Mary Walker gets as office or not.

2. We don't care whether Mr. Howard gets to China or not.

3. We don't believe Mr. McMahon is in any danger from his friend Lopez—and don't want to hear anything from him.

4. When divers and sundry honorable humm is go to Washington on private business, we don't care humbum unpuffed.

A strict regard for these facts would save us much composition, and more wear and tear of temper.

REMARKABLE ACCIDENT—DISASTROUS EFFECTS.—A letter received at Louisville, from Princeton, Ky., speaks of a fearful accident which occurred on the 20th. A man named Boat Crow was hauling upon a wagon two immense mill-stones, one of which weighed 2,850 pounds. While passing along the side of a high hill the heavy stone rolled from the wagon and down the declivity with fearful velocity, crushing small trees and shrubbery in its course.—The house of a farmer, named Darwell, was situated at the foot of the hill. The mill stone went crushing through a fence and into the yard of the farmer's house, where were a number of bee hives. In the yard were playing a bevy of children. The bee-hives were upset, and the bees in the confusion lighted upon the children, stinging them in a frightful manner. The progress of the great stone was not impeded in the least by its collision with the hives, and went bounding into a a ock pasture beyond the house. It dashed into a herd of calves and horses, killing two of the former and one of the latter almost instantly. The children in the yard had been completely covered with the bees, and each one was stung by them until their persons were entirely covered with white swellings. One of them died a few hours after the terrible occurrence, and two others are entirely speechless and blind. They can hardly recover.

Remember that only one single Republican delegate, of Franklin, voted for the nomination of Gen. Phil Hawkins.

SINGULAR.—A very strange and almost incredible story is told us by a respectable and reliable citizen of Bow Lake Village, Strafford—Mr. Azariah Waldron. This gentleman caught a common striped turtle a short time since, and at the request of the school teacher took out the heart, which is a curiosity, from the fact that it seems to retain signs of life for days after being taken from the body of the turtle. The heart was pierced with a needle and otherwise experimented with, after which it was thrown out, and one of Mr. Waldron's hens was seen to swallow it. A few days after Mrs. Waldron broke a number of eggs, and in the centre of one of them found the turtle's heart. At that moment she called her husband and one or two other persons, all of whom saw and identified it. It is a curious question how this seemingly living piece of flesh came in this egg. The truth of this story is vouched for by numbers of reliable citizens.

Remember that Gen. Phil Hawkins has shown that he is for self and for office, and is not to be trusted by any party.

There is no greater satire on reconstruction than the outcome of it. Its imported Governors are already a stench to their own party. Bullock, of Georgia, is remanded to impeachment by the voice of the very papers he found; Warmouth, of Louisiana, is preparing to emigrate to Illinois, whence he came; Scott, of South Carolina, is denounced as a robber; Smith, of Alabama, has won a unanimous opinion of his imbecility; and Wells, of Virginia, has been spewed out of the State. Time will be, ere long, when the carpet baggers will court the seclusion of servitude and exile rather than the infamy of liberty.—N. Y. World.

Remember! that many colored men in Louisburg accused General Phil. Hawkins, publicly, of refusing to pay them money he justly owed them.

WIDE SPREAD USEFULNESS.—The relief of the wants of the deserving poor, and especially of widows and orphans, whose natural provider has been lost to them, is a subject which has been forced upon the attention of communities and individuals through all history, and many plans of systematic relief have been discussed.—Great good has been done by the aid thus given to those unable to help themselves but, after all, charity is not the best way in which such help can be secured. To accept of alms involves, in some degree, a loss of self-respect and independence. What is wanted is some system by which, at small cost, every laboring man may make sure of leaving to his family, when death takes him away, a sum sufficient to keep the wolf from the door. Such a plan is offered to the public in the advertisement of the National Life Insurance Company in another column. The general features of the management of this Company are there noted, and the local agents will cheerfully give any further information as to the peculiar advantages offered. The "National Life" was chartered by Congress le s than one year ago; it began business in August last, having then to establish its entire system of agencies, and to distribute information among the peop'e as to its character and purposes. Both of these things have been done; the entire country and the Canadian Dominion are now covered by its general and sub agencies, and liberal advertising has made the name of the Company familiar throughout the land.—The result has surprised even its incorporators and officers. In ten months nearly 5,400 policies, covering over $15,000,000 insurance have been issued, this amount of business being nearly double that ever done by any other Company in the world during the entire first year of its existence. Such an unprecedented success should not only inspire unusual confidence in the organization so emphatically endorsed, but be the subject of general congratulation that the new Company has been able to do so much for the future comfort of the families insured. Every family thus protected from want is a proportionate diminution of future taxation, temptation and crime.

Low cash rates, and a plain business contract of as much insurance for so much money (avoiding all uncertainties of notes or dividends) are prominent features of the plan pursued by the National Life. Its capital is ample, its Officers and Directors men of unquestioned honor and ability, and its system of business is straightforward and business like. It deserves its success, and it has already taken front rank among institutions of its kind.

See advertisement of P. P. Pescud, the successful and very popular General Agent, for N. C., in another column.

Two darkies of Augusta, Ga., went out to fight a duel the other day, but while they were shaking with pistols in their hands, a shrewd out negro present, after examining the challenge and acceptance, called a halt, remarking, "Dem dar papers ain't fix up reddin to de code, and dis dam foolishness is about to git some nigger in jail;" whereupon the belligerents ejaculated each to his second, "Tank de Lord!" and went home.

These parties are those who killed and scalped six or seven Chinamen at that place a few days since.

DEATH OF THE SLEEPING WOMAN, MISS SUSAN C. GODSEY.—Miss Susan Caroline Godsey, the sleeping wonder, died at her mother's home, some eight miles from Hickman, on Wednesday, 14 h instant.

The history of Miss Godsey is well known to the public, a statement of her wonderful condition having been published extensively by the press of the United States. At the time of her death Miss Godsey was about twenty-six years of age, and had been asleep, as described, about fourteen years. The existence of this wonderful case of coma, or preternatural disposition to sleep, has been doubted by many, but the fact is indisputable. Indeed, some twelve months ago Miss Godsey was taken to Nashville and other places for exhibition, but we understand many even of the physicians of Nashville looked upon the case with suspicion.

The history of the case is, briefly: When about twelve years of age she was taken with a severe chill and treated accordingly by her physicians. As her fever which followed her chill subs ded, she fell in a deep sleep, in which condition she has remained ever since, except at intervals. It was her custom, at first, to awake regularly twice in twenty four hours, and, singularly, within a few minutes of the same hours each day; but of later years she awoke oftener, so much so that many considered it an indication of her final recovery. She would remain awake five, ten, or perhaps fifteen minutes, and gradually drop off to sleep again. When asleep it was utterly impossible to arouse her. She never complained of any bodily pain, though when asleep she was very nervous at times, and appeared to suffer considerably by the violent twitchings and jerkings of her muscles and limbs, and her hands clenched tightly as if enduring severe pain, but when awake she did not appear to suffer, except from a drowsy, gaping inclination and persistent effort to cleanse her throat of phlegm. She generally passed into sleep through a violent paroxysm, which would last perhaps five minutes, and she would then sleep awhile as calmly and quietly as an infant. Miss Godsey was of medium size, and her limbs and muscles were well proportioned and developed, and grew considerably after her affliction.

Miss Godsey, on the day she died, indulged in a little prophesying, which we give as related for what it is worth. She said "the sun would be a total eclipse on the seventh of August" (this is remarkable; because parties assert that she could have had no knowledge that this was according to calculation.) "and that the sun would never shine as bright after that day." That this would indicate the end of the world, which was speedily approaching.—Hickman (Ky) Courier.

COTTON FIELD DESTROYED BY LIGHTNING.—We find the annexed singular statement in the Columbus (Ga.) Inquirer, of the 20th instant:

Mr. Jas. T. Holland told us, yesterday, that he thought until one of the late storms, that he had suffered from "bad luck" all that could be required of him, but one more lick, and that from the most unexpected direction, fell on him a few days ago in the shape of lightning. He says about one-half an acre of his best cotton, averaging nearly three feet high, was struck by lightning, and the cotton and every living thing of whatever kind, were killed as dead as December. He says the earth itself seems so paralyzed by the stroke that it has lost all its vegetating forces. Mr. Holland's plantation is only a few miles west of the city, in Lee county, Alabama, and, as singularly as the fact stated is, he is too well known for any one to question its truth. Lightning rods in cotton fields would look queer.

A HARD STORY.—Here is a California story which is almost incredible: "A hired man on a Napa farm was detailed to keep a watch on the cornfield, and not let the black marauders invade the premises, but, like many other men in a similar situation, tried to plan a method whereby so much labor would not have to be performed; so he hit upon the plan of soaking some corn in whiskey, and placing it in the field so that the crows would surely get drunk, and then he thought he would have a sure thing on them, and could kill them easily. He had tried to shoot them with a shot gun, but crows can smell powder a long way. After soaking some corn over night, he put a bountiful supply in the field early next morning, and in about two or three hours he went out to see how things were progressing, and mark you what follows: One of the crows, a little larger than the rest, had gathered up and taken possession of almost all the corn, and had built himself a bar out of clods of earth, and was retailing the whiskey soaked corn to the other crows, charging them three grains of sprouted corn for one soaked grain. Our hired man had not the heart to kill any of the creatures that seemed in their actions like mankind."

The President was informed that the only desire of the Conservative Republicans was neutrality on the part of the Administration in the pending election. The President replied he wished for the success of that party which would in good faith carry out the reconstruction acts, accept the 15th Amendment and give protection to life and property in Mississippi. He wanted to know whether the former enemies of the Government were acting in good faith in their present professions of loyalty and said this would soon be ascertained in part by the action of the Conservative Republicans in Virginia. If they were acting in good faith, he should be glad to have the influence and intelligence of that State, and of the South generally, in support of his administration. The President inquired of Col. Moorman, at what time the Conservative Republicans would nominate their candidates, and when informed that it would probably be about the 1st of September, he said, he would see what kind of a ticket they would put in the field, and that his action would be influenced more or less by subsequent events and the course of affairs in the South. He added that he desired to see the payment of the public debt secured, and the integrity and honor of the nation rendered inviolate and when this was accomplished he would be satisfied.

AN EARTHQUAKE PREDICTED.—A very general excitement has been cau ed in Peru by the publication of the prophecy of a German astronomer asserting that on the 10th, 11th and 12th of August of this year, preliminary shocks of earthquake will be felt in Peru and Equador, to be followed on the 20th of September or October by a move of the earth in that region, and along the line of the Andes mountain generally, that will be perfectly appalling in its effects. The prediction has, it appears, created wide spread terror among the Peruvians, and many families are now preparing to seek places of greater security. The astronomer cannot ascertain to a certainty whether the grand rupture will occur in September or October, but that it will be on or about the 20th he is confident. He affirms that he has predicted earthquakes before with perfect accuracy.

"Fresh as a Maiden's Blush" is the pure peachy Complexion which follows the use of Hagan's Magnolia Balm. It is the True Secret of Beauty. Fashionable Ladies in Society understand this.

The Magnolia Balm changes the Rustic Country Girl into a City Belle more rapidly than any other one thing.

Redness, Sunburn, Tan, Freckles, Blotches and all effects of the Summer Sun disappear where it is used, and a genial, cultivated, fresh expression is obtained which rivals the Bloom of Youth. Beauty is possible to all who will invest 75 cents at any respectable store and insist on getting the Magnolia Balm.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,
CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.
THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.

Being situated in the north-western part of the State, in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtues of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.

The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur, and Chalybeate of Iron, and they possess all the best qualities of these waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.

The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvement to generally these Springs are now in a fine condition, large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.

Good TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.

FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.

A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC

Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.

Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. Carter, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.

The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.

As an inducement for families and parties to spend two months or more, I have concluded to put board down at the following low rates:

BOARD!

Per one single month. $30 00
For two or more months, $40 per month, or at that rate.
Per week, 10 00
Per day, 2 50

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

Assets $10,462,531,75.

Amount of Income 6,227,071.

SURPLUS OVER LIABILITIES 2,675,999,48.

THE Ætna is the LEADING LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY in North Carolina.

Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!

The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,
For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a sure remedy for the most of those diseases which require the aid of a purgative, and for which some other must be employed. Those who have tried it know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know from what it does and has done always—that it never fails to do its work when it can be done by any medicine. We have, and can show, thousands and tens of thousands of certificates of its cures, but such proof is unnecessary here, for everybody is sure to have some within his reach, and we publish none. Adapted to all ages and constitutions in all climates, containing neither calomel nor any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them always fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their general influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and thus correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Lassitude and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and the various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice, Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required

FLORENCE VANE.

I loved thee long and dearly,
Florence Vane;
My life's bright dream and early
Hath come again;
I renew in my fond vision,
My heart's dear pain,
My hopes, and thy derision,
Florence Vane.

The ruin lone and hoary,
The ruin old
Where thou didst hark my story,
As'even told—
That spot—the hues elysian
Of sky and pain—
I treasure in my vision,
Florence Vane.

Thou wast lovelier than the roses
In their prime;
Thy notes excelled the closes
Of sweetest rhyme,
Thy heart was as a river
Without a main,
Would I had loved thee never,
Florence Vane.

But, fairest, coldest wonder!
Thy glorious clay
Lieth the green sod under—
Alas, the day!
And it boots not to remember
Thy disdain,
To quicken love's pale ember,
Florence Vane.

The lilies of the valley
By young graves weep,
The daisies love to daily
Where maidens sleep;
May their blooms, in beauty vieing,
Never wane
Where thine earthly part is lying,
Florence Vane!

The Age of Progress.

We publish to-day, the first scheme in the sale of Real and Personal Estate Company chartered by the last Legislature, with a capital of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars and with power to increase that amount to five hundred thousand dollars. An examination of the charter satisfies us that the Company is pursuing a legitimate business; they are empowered to "dispose of Real and Personal Estate in any manner or form they may deem best, and "all laws, or clauses of laws, coming in conflict with said charter are hereby repealed." This is plain and unmistakable English, and we have no doubt the transactions of the Company will prove beneficial to the property holders of North Carolina. For example: Mr. A. owns a piece of real estate which he wishes to dispose of. He throws it upon the market, and fails to get a bid that would warrant him in making a deed. He then places it in the hands of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, at a fair valuation, and the property is sold by chance—the owner gets his price—the Company a fair and reasonable compensation for selling—and some poor man, for ten dollars comes in possession of a homestead, which, under any other circumstances, he would not have owned.

In fact, we do not view the Company as a Lottery—it is what it purports to be, a simple Agency for the sale of property, for its true value, which, otherwise would be sacrificed.

We refer our readers to the advertisement—the splendid real estate offered, and the other rich prizes, amounting in all to THREE THOUSAND AND ONE—and the Prize will perceive, by the simple rule of division, that there is one prize to every twenty-four tickets.

The General Agent of the Company has given us a call, and assures us that the success of the Company is no longer a problem. In thirty-five counties through which he has just traveled, he represents the people as being enthusiastic in favor of it—both as to investing, and the placing of property in the hands of the Company for sale. He represents the fact orally, before the first grand drawing has taken place. Applications to sell, amounting to half a million dollars, are on file in the Secretary's office.

We learn from the Raleigh papers, that the explanatory drawing which took place in the city of Raleigh, on Saturday last, passed off to the decided satisfaction of a large audience assembled in Tucker Hall to witness it.—Wil. Post.

One three cent stamp must accompany every order. All tickets will have the seal of the Company and signature of the Secretary.

☞ We refer to any Merchant, Banker or other gentleman of standing in the city of Raleigh. For further description and particulars, address

JOHN SKINNER,
june2 tf Secretary
